

Betty Ann Bias

April 20, 1957 - May 2, 2020

Betty Ann Bias, age 63, of Bessemer, AL (formerly of Ragland, WV), passed away suddenly on Saturday, May 2, 2020. Betty was born to Shelba Bias, of West Hamlin, WV, and the late James Bias, on April 20, 1957, in Hamlin, WV. She was a class of 1975 graduate of Burch High School in Delbarton, WV. Throughout life, Betty was always free spirited, and she loved her animals. She was quick witted, loved laughing, and always had a funny story to share. She never tired of talking about how much she loved horses growing up and how much it meant to her spending time at her grandparents' farm in West Virginia. She forever longed to return there. Betty leaves as her legacy one daughter, Rebecca Bias (Josh Barnes); two grandchildren, Kaylee Bias and A.J. Barnes, all of Chelsea, AL. She also leaves to cherish her memory two brothers, Carl Bias (Sherida), of Ashland, KY, and Eric Bias (Melody) of Culloden, WV; one nephew, Michael; three nieces, Katie, Kelsey, and Erica; and several, wonderful great nieces and nephews. No service is planned at this time. Betty's wishes were to be cremated and her ashes returned to rest eternally among the hills of West Virginia. She will be interred next to her father at Curry Chapel Cemetery in Lincoln County, WV.

“ She was my grandmother, my best friend and my rock even when I was upset and didn't want to talk to her. She's everything and more to me and I would always listen to her stories about all the boys who chased her and about her little scandalous adventures every now and then. She always had something funny to say even when it was the worse day for you, she was that one person that could walk in a room and you automatically become so much happier knowing that they are near you. She lit the room up beautifully when she smiled and her laugh was so raspy and gentle, it was contagious to sit next to her because you would start laughing for no reason and that is the best part, because she could make you feel happy when sad, silly when mad, and confident when insecure. If someone asks me who this women is I won't deny her blood because I'm glad to be called her granddaughter and to have been able to know and love her the way I had. It hurts to k ow she is gone but it's better to know she's with her father now and she's happy again.

“ Ms. Betty was a very sweet friend and neighbor that would sit on her porch with her puppies and chat with us from time to time about things going on in our community and shared memories with us of her time in WV or her Grandaughters softball games. She was the best neighbor we could've had and is dearly missed. Our prayers and thoughts are with her family in this sad time.
