“ My father & his Motorcycle before he had to Retire from Riding Motorcycles, the bike was handed down from him to me & he knew I would Rebuild the bike to its original look . I actually Never thought he would live long enough to see it after Rebuild but , The Ol ‘ Man was tough and did get to see the bike in person when I brought it up to his home . He was amazed on how it looked . This was the last photo of me & my father together standing by his old Harley . It a :1985 Harley Davidson FXWG / Not a bad looking bike for now being 38 years old

“ Continued Prayers for healing for the family and friends. Brother Al would come to church and talk about racing and he would talk to me about his military experience. I remember a visit that a couple of our deacons went to visit. We sat on the front porch and he talked about several things and when he was through talking, he just got up and went inside the house. That's the Alford Tingle that I knew. He said what he was going to say and the conversation was over. He will be missed. RIP Brother
