

Anita Cheek Revis

February 20, 1943 - October 7, 2022

Anita (Nita) Louise Cheek Revis

On October 7, 2022 our dearest mother, grandmother, great grandmother and sister was carried gently into Jesus's arms. She is now reunited with her husband of 63 years, Wayne B. Revis; her parents James T Cheek and Louise D. Cheek and her sister Janet C. Parker.

She is survived by her children: David Revis (Belinda), Mark Revis (Jodi) and Jana Turner (Jason). Grandchildren are: Amy Witherspoon (Antonio) and Sarah Oglesby (Robert). Great grandchildren Elijah Revis, Adeline Oglesby and Peyton Witherspoon. She is also survived by her siblings Jim Cheek (Dot), Linda Hyche (Bon) and Carolyn Blake along with many nieces, nephews and friends.

Anita was not a homemaker but a steward of the family. She accompanied Wayne in running a successful Engineering Company for more than 45 years, Revis Engineering. She gave from her bountiful garden to all and preserved the best pickles in the South. If you were ever given a jar of her pickles, you knew you were well-loved.

Anita inspired those around her through Christ's love and grace. She was a lifelong member of Flint Hill Baptist Church where she taught Children's Church, worked on a bus route, and taught adult Sunday School.

Well done thy good and faithful servant.
