

Annette Canant

March 2, 1945 - January 3, 2022

Navada Annette Canant, 76 of McCalla, Alabama passed into eternal life on Monday, January 3, 2022.

She was born on March 2, 1945 to Cordell and Louise Troutt, the third of four children and was raised in Powderly, Alabama.

She was preceded in death by two children, Michael David Canant and James Paul "Jimbo" Canant, her parents Cordell and Louise Troutt, and siblings Edward Troutt and Louise Harrison.

She will be greatly missed by her husband James Pervie Canant, son Adam (Jennifer) Canant, daughter-in-law Marilyn Canant, grandchildren Megan, Zachary, Ashley, Dawson, and Madison Canant.

In addition to her love for gardening and horses, she was an award winning artist and seamstress and was known for her beautiful handwriting.

She was an accomplished business owner where she enjoyed teaching others about her love of hand smocking, quilting, and machine sewing and embroidery.

She loved to travel to the mountains and beautiful beaches where she created cherished memories and collected many sea shells.

Her faith in Jesus Christ was secured early in life but she found the greatest joy in recent years as she shared her faith and love for God with those she encountered daily. In the final three years she told people often that God was her compass for navigating her daily journey with pancreatic cancer. She told everyone "Regardless of how things end, I still win because I am following God.” She has won!
