“ it is hard to share a single memory of Autumn even though i did not see her but twice in person we communicated everyday all day via text and facebook and sent each other a few video messages but the days we did meet in person she was not feeling good but i could tell she was so happy i enjoyed seeing her smile and here her laugh she would tell me how much her family and friends meant to her and how she was adopted and was getting to know more of her family. The last text i got from Autumn was on august 12th and it will be saved on my phone forever as Autumn will be in my heart forever
