“ I loved this woman of God. We taught G.A.'s (young girls) in church together. I have many great memories of how she laughed and shared with us.

“ One of the sweetest women in the whole wide world is sure gonna be missed. I haven't seen Avy in several years but one of my greatest joys was singing in the choir with her at Eastern Valley Baptist Church.....Such a Godly woman who praised Him with all she had and with her beautiful voice more than anything!!!! I loved this sweet lady...May our God comfort her family and may we all be comforted in knowing that we shall see each other again, "When The Roll Is Called Up Yonder"...

“ I just loved this lady...I have known her all of my life at Eastern Valley Baptist Church and has spent time at her house when I was younger. I always loved to hear her and Belvie Mann sing together and most of the time I played for them to sing. Well, we know that she really singing now in that heavenly choir. What I remember the most is that she always had a smile on her face and always a giggle. I love you ms. avie and I will see you soon on the other side;
