

Barbara Faye Duncan Cook

August 13, 1942 - August 26, 2017

Barbara Faye Duncan Cook, 75, a lifelong resident of the Birmingham area of Alabama passed away August 26th, 2017 after a battle with leukemia. She was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, great aunt, and friend. She is survived by her husband Timothy David Cook Sr. of 53 years, as well as two sons, Timothy David Cook Jr (Jennifer) and Duncan Samuel Cook, a sister, Joy Lohr(Larry), a sister-in-law Shelia Duncan, an aunt Lorene Sullivan, and uncle Asa L Duncan, three grandchildren Trey Cook, Rigsby Cook, and Mathew Cook plus a host of other nieces, nephews. She was pre-deceased by her parents Ernest and Francis Duncan of Tuscaloosa County and brother Gary Franklin Duncan of Homewood, AL. Barbara attended Phillips High School , Birmingham, AL and went on to attend the University of Alabama Tuscaloosa on a 4 year scholarship where she earned a nursing degree. She worked as a public health nurse, she worked in a host of emergency rooms including being one of three emergency room nurses caring for those affected by the tragic 16th Street Church Bombing in 1963. Additionally, she was an instructor for nursing assistants, and later certification of patients with insurance providers. Finally, she served as a volunteer at UAB Medical West. She devoted her adult life to the care of others. She enjoyed gardening and was always doting over her grandchildren. She was a special, caring soul and will be greatly missed by the many whom she touched the lives of. Over all else, she cherished her Christian faith and exhibited her adherence to it on a daily basis. And in keeping with her giving spirit, in lieu of flowers, the family requests donations to the charity of your choosing. Visitation will be held at Eastern Valley Baptist Church, 1216 Potter Ave, Bessemer, AL 35020 from 6-8pm Sunday, August 27th.
