“ Barbara was a member of our Charles A Brown graduating class of 1959 and our Ensley High School graduating class of 1963. She was one of the kindest and sweetest classmates one could have. I had the good fortune of getting reacquainted with Barbara around the time of our 50th Ensley class reunion in 2013. She was just as sweet and kind then as I remembered her in her youth. I send my sincerest condolences to her family and friends. I’m sure her loss is very deeply felt. But I’m also sure the Lord has not lost her. Barbara is in his bosom now and forever. That fact will surely be of some comfort to her loved ones.
