“ Jerry and family, just want you to know we care and let you know we are praying for you in your loss. I remember you and Betty when we were all newlyweds in the young married Sunday School and Training Union classes at Canaan Baptist Church. I think I remember ya'll had the little "red headed" twins that were so cute. We were all having babies at the same time. Betty was a very sweet person and will be missed.

“ Dear Bartlett Family,
My deepest sympathy to all of you during this time of loss. I will always remember Mrs. Bartlett with the best memories. Your whole family was always there for us during good and bad times. Your mother was so dear to each of us and always supportive when we were going through tough times. Love to all of you! Teresa Ross
