“ Hard to believe it's been over a decade. I find myself thinking about you a lot lately. I keep listening to your favorite song. I made a lot of idiotic, immature decisions back then, and I wish I would have had the backbone to have apologized before you left. I'm putting this here because there really isn't another place to. Wherever you are, I love you and always did/have. I wish I would have shown you

“ Brandy was an absolutely incredible woman. Here I sit, four years later, and still think about her on a daily basis. I miss her very, very much. She meant so much to me, and I should have told her more while she was here. I know she is no longer in pain and that she is in a much better place. She was incredible. I love you girl.
