“ Brenda was my cousin, I'll never forget her kind heart. When we were still children and she was grown, she would come get us and take us places. The most fun was going to her house to spend the night. One time she lived across the street from the park in downtown Bessemer, so many good memories of being with her. Her and Bill were there for us a lot when my dad and stepmother spent many days at UAB Hospital with my stepsister. She always had a lot of love to offer everyone around her.
