“ Brett, I will never forget how you and I use to climb Grama's magnolia tree in the front yard of her old house in Hueytown. You were always much more brave than I and would climb to the top every time. We were never suppose to climb in it but, we always did. You were never suppose to leave us little cousin, and now you have. I miss you so terribly little love. You have been flooding my mind, today especially. Today we send your spirit off to rest, I hope you are proud of the service. Be there for your momma, let her know you are okay now. We will never forget you. Your memory will live on in each and every person you met but, especially in our family. Til we meet again Lil Cuz. I love you, forever and always.

“ *Brett,
I'll always remember you, your brothers,
Dakota and Skyler and your cousins, Kevin and Jared playing war in the pool at your granny and PawPaw's (Shelby and Harold) house while your dad, Jerry grilled out for the weekend. You were always a hoot and full of surprises. I love you baby and I'm glad we've been able to catch up some. I'm just heartbroken that you've been taken away from us so soon.*

*Love always and forever,

“ My son, Heath went to North Highland Elementary with Brett. Brett was a sweet child.
