

Bruce Lavon Lollar

June 5, 1942 - May 9, 2026

Bruce Lavon Lollar, age 83, passed away peacefully on May 9, 2026. Born on June 5, 1942, Bruce entered into the loving presence of his Lord and Savior.

Bruce proudly served his country in the United States Air Force, where he was often described as being like “Radar O’Reilly” because of his dependable nature and ability to always stay one step ahead. He faithfully served others with humility, dedication, and kindness throughout his life.

Bruce was known for his silly jokes, warm personality, and unforgettable Donald Duck impressions that brought laughter and joy to everyone around him. He deeply loved his family and treasured the many friendships he made over the years.

He was preceded in death by his father, Joseph Milford Lollar; his mother, Arleze Lollar; his brother, Gerry Leon Lollar; and his beloved wife, Minnie Elizabeth Lollar.

Bruce is survived by his sister, Linda Lollar Dixon, along with many cherished nieces, nephews, extended family members, and dear friends who will forever hold his memory close to their hearts. His family finds comfort in knowing he has been reunited in Heaven with those he loved and is now resting peacefully in the arms of Jesus.

Bruce will be deeply missed and lovingly remembered for the laughter, love, and kindness he shared with everyone who knew him.
