“ Casey was a sparkly cantagious niece of my late husband William (Bill) Wesson. I met Casey in the early days of our relationship and I'm grateful for that chance. She was always bubbly and vivacious and thrived in that loving family! I grieve for her beloved husband and two small sons.

Enclosing two pictures of Casey at our wedding in 2002, note how she's so very focused on catching my bouquet, which she did!, Always think of you fondly!!!
