

Charles Robert Agricola

May 4, 1946 - July 4, 2020

Charles Robert Agricola, age 74, of McCalla, Alabama went home to be with our Lord on July 4, 2020. He was a loving father and grandfather who was a friend to everyone he met. He was preceded in death by his parents, Carl and Ruby Agricola, and his brother, Phillip Agricola. Charles is survived by his son, Corey (Jenny) Agricola of Hayden, Alabama; daughter, Shelby (Nathan) Hayes of Helena, Alabama; twin grandsons, James Ethan and Charles Andrew Hayes; and sister, Amelia Williams of Niceville, Florida. During the Vietnam War, Charles proudly served his country as a member of the United States Air Force. Following his enlistment, Charles spent 35 years as a route salesman for Golden Flake Enterprises. A private graveside service for family will be held on Tuesday, July 7th at the Alabama National Cemetery in Montevallo. In lieu of flowers, the family wishes for donations to be made to Our Hope International. Our Hope is a non-profit organization that serves as the primary stateside partner for Home of Hope, a special needs orphanage in Uganda. Home of Hope cares for 75 children with disabilities and works to reach their community with the hope of Jesus Christ. To give in honor of Charles you can mail a check made to Our Hope to PO Box 811 Gardendale, AL 35071, give via Venmo at Our-Hope-1 or via Paypal at ourhopeinternational.com, please indicate the donation is in honor of Charles Agricola. “ Mr. Charles was our neighbor for many years. He was always smiling and waving on his back porch as I left for work in the morning. Even now I can't help but look for him as I go by... he will be missed. Frank and Regina Rodriguez
