“ I have several memories of my sweet cousin. But one of my favorites is when I was a little girl he came home for a weekend from the Service and we went to his house to see him and eat lunch at Aunt Joan's. He had to go back over to his house and I asked if I could go. He held my hand and helped me down the steps and down the dirt rd we went to his house next door. We went in and he was getting some things together to leave and I remember he was putting his boots on. I had never seen boots with that many shoe laces. I asked him if he was scared to go back and he said no not at all. I took away a good memory from that day along with all the times we spent going Christmas shopping together at Christmas village! and him coming to our house at Christmas for him and Blake to compare snow villages. They could talk for hours about Christmas.! I will also always remember the Love he had for Granny Gilbert. They had a special bond. I will miss you Charles! Love you Boogie
