“ All my memories of my sweet Uncle Charles are precious to me. He prayed for me many times in my life and always let me know i was loved. Time with him has been especially sweet and comforting since my Daddy, his brother Coleman, died. Uncle Charles, Uncle Mick, Daddy and I shared May birthdays all in the same week. The first May after Daddy died the morning of my birthday (and Uncle Mick's) my phone rang and it was Uncle Charles. He said he knew Daddy couldn't call me to wish me happy birthday so he was doing it for him. Now they are all in heaven together so I will just have sweet memories of Daddy and my four special uncles on my birthday and their birthdays and most every day until I can see them again. I love you, Uncle Charles.

One of the finest men I have ever know. Will be missed greatly by all who knew him, their sorrow only partially soothed by the knowledge of where he is at in heaven and he is waiting patiently on us with our beloved Ruth.
