“ My grief has been deeper than any darkness I have EVER known...My Daughter Cheron and I were Very close. Me and her Son Kayden were her Stable home and Love lived there. Cheron had lots of friends that loved her. She worked supporting her Son as a Single Mom. I Always had a Stable home for them to stay and be fed and comforted. The saying goes, you give the clothes off your back for your Children....I loved My Daughter with every fiber of My being...and Kayden came along and was such a Blessing to have a Grandson...they lived with me most of their lives...There is No Greater Love than The Love Me and Cheron shared. I was with her thru All 9 months she was pregnant and there keeping Kayden thru his life. Cheron... Kayden is a Good boy..and he loves you so much. We miss you everyday!

“ Cheron,

You were my first best friend...I thought you were my sister because we were together almost every single day growing up. We have shared so much...stories, secrets, celebrations, joy, laughter, tears...so many memories and talks that are all mine that I'll carry with me until I see you again. Growing up we loved each other, and sometimes hated each other, yet always made up after every fight. We rode around endlessly talking for hours. We went everywhere together. I was there for your marriages, the birth of Kayden...you were there for my marriage and for both of my girls when they were born. You were so much more than my cousin, and you meant more to me than I could have ever told you, and I'm so sorry I couldn't do more...I love you so much, and I'll miss you always...
