Cheri you were always a beautiful woman, amazing mother to your boys and man what a Grandma to those grandkids that you loved so very much. I know you're no longer suffering in pain and man what a feeling that must be. I know you would have endured anything possible to remain with your family forever though. I'll never forget your strength and how I saw you at every sports event or anything to do with your boys or grandchildren that you could go to. They had the best example of how a parent should be you can bet that. Love you girl 😊
