

Claude S. Cobb Sr.

February 23, 1929 - July 3, 2014

Claude S. Cobb, Sr. 85 went to be with his Lord on Thursday, July 3, 2014. He was preceded in death by his first wife, Rebecca D. Cobb. Mr. Cobb served in the U. S. Army during the Korean War and was awarded the Bronze Star. Upon returning state side, Claude trained as a civil engineer working for Chicago Bridge and Iron and retiring with 37 years of service. He was an active member of Huffman Assembly of God which later became The Cathedral of the Cross. Claude enjoyed working in his shop with both wood or with metal projects. He was very passionate about studying the Word of God and witnessing to those around him. He is survived by his wife, Doris Cobb, two sons; Claude S. Cobb, Jr., Randall (Sharon) Cobb, two step-daughters; Elizabeth Barnett, Tricia (Tom) Jackson, one brother, Bill Cobb, one grandchild, Carey Smith, nine step grandchildren, two great-grandchildren, Nicholas and Jacob Smith. Funeral services will be 2:00 PM Sunday at McCalla Memorial Funeral Home with burial following at Elmwood Cemetery. The family will receive friends from 12:30 to the service time.

“ Dear Cobb Family,

I am sorry for you loss. Your faminly will be in our thoughts and prayers. It was a honor and privilege to play TAPS for Master Sergeant Cobb. We thank your father for his service to God, his Country and his fellow Americans. Thank you for the opportunity for allowing me to be a part of the service for your father.

Sincerely,

ME

“ Please allow me to offer my condolences to the, Cobb family with these comforting words: Jesus spoke of a time when “all those in the memorial tombs” would “come out” to renewed life in a paradise earth.—John 5:28, 29; Luke 23:43. True, that glowing hope does not take all the tragedy out of death. Jesus himself broke down and cried over the death of his friend Lazarus—and that was just minutes before he resurrected him! At least, then, death is not always final. Jesus and his Father, both hate death. The Bible calls death “the last enemy” and says that it will “be brought to nothing.” (1 Corinthians 15:26) In the coming Paradise, when Satan’s rule is a thing of the past, death will be gone forever. Its innocent victims will be reclaimed by the resurrection. This is the hope for, Mr. Cobb, as well. Then, we will at last be able to say, ‘Death, where is your sting?’—Hosea 13:14. I am very sorry for your loss. May God’s Word comfort you and your family. Sincerely, Meryl ~ crochetmeryls way@gmail.com
