

Daniel C Mann

April 24, 1959 - February 20, 2025

Daniel Craig Mann, 65, of West Blocton, Alabama, departed this life on Thursday, Feb. 20, 2025. He was a loving husband, father, grandfather, great-grandfather, brother, uncle, and friend. Daniel lived a good life and was at peace knowing that he had accepted the Good Lord as his God and Savior.

To know Daniel was to know his kindness and generosity. As a master carpenter, he would happily share his talents with his friends, family, and church. A gifted communicator, he shared humorous stories of his childhood and adult adventures far and wide. We will always remember his smiling face and laughter.

A native of North Carolina's Outer Banks, Daniel grew up a beach boy, playing in the ocean and running barefoot through the sand. He was daring and was known to jump off the Nags Head Fishing Pier-until he got caught. He loved surfing, biking, fishing, and roller skating.

As an adult, Daniel loved hunting, and he gladly shared his knowledge of the sport, teaching many how to read animal tracks, follow trails, and hunt safely and properly.

Daniel's childhood goal was to go bear hunting, and he did it twice. The second time, he killed a large black bear in Alaska with a recurve bow and arrow.

Preceded in death by his father, Gaston Bryan Mann Jr., mother Blanche Marie Daw, and brother Gaston Bryan Mann III, he is survived by his wife, Annie Ruth Mann of West Blocton, daughter Ann Marie Bowen (Chris) and son Rick Ryals (Julie) of Jacksonville, Florida, sister Anna Mann Lynch of Virginia; grandchildren Johnny (Destin), Daniel (Stephanie), Chloe, Aryel, Emily (Christian), Ashlynn, and Ivan; great-grandchildren Johnny "JJ", Seraphina, DJ, Leilani, Elizabeth, and Landon, and a host of nieces and nephews.

The family will receive visitors at 1 p.m. on Monday, February 24, followed by a service at 2 p.m., at First Baptist Church of Woodstock, 2473 Cold Water Road, Woodstock, Alabama 35188. In lieu of flowers, a donation may be made to the community meal program (Masters Kitchen) at the church.
