

David Andrew Wood

April 22, 1969 - September 8, 2021

David Andrew Wood (Andy), 52 of McCalla AL, passed away on September 8, 2021. He was a loving son, brother, uncle, nephew, cousin and friend. He loved animals, plants, family and friends. He found beauty in the simple things. Things that others may over look or simply pass by. He always had a soft heart for the underdog and looked for the good in everyone.

He is preceded in death by his parents, Charles and Donna Wood; nephew, Daniel Hubbard; and his beloved furbaby, Penelope.

He is survived by his furbaby, "Big Boy"; brother, Keith (Marilyn) Wood; sister, Ellyn (Donald) Hubbard, a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews and friends he considered family.

“ I used to live across the street from Andy and I helped him build a haunted house in his aunts basement one time and it was very successful! He also helped me build a log cabin in the woods one time which we stayed in until we got in trouble for cutting down a bunch of trees and stealing cinder blocks from my neighbor. We had some great times. You will be greatly missed!
