“ *Today is the day you will be laid to rest,
But you know what they say,
God only takes the best.
Everything happens for a reason,
Even if we may not agree.
Just promise to look after us,
And if you can,
Save a spot up there for me.
The thought of never seeing you again brings tears to my eyes,
And even more so,
Because all of this was such a surprise.
But we should never question what God has planned,
Sometimes it's not meant for us to understand.
So as we sit here and mourn the loss of a beloved friend,
We have to keep telling ourselves that we will meet again.*

*Love you my dear friend

“ Diane is my sista by choice whom I love with all of my heart. Thinking about all of the precious memories of us over the past 30 + years has brought me lots of laughter and tears today. She was ALWAYS here for me especially through the darkest days of my life. She was ALWAYS here for me no matter what. My most cherished memory is when I was expecting my first baby in 1991. Aunt Diane was determined that I was going to have her, no matter what she had to do. She was on it. She made me walk up the biggest hill in Bessemer as it seemed to me. Sure enough I went into labor. The whole hill side got up and we took off to the hospital. Lots of family was there for the birth of Stephanie Danielle. I was in labor for 26 hrs and nobody left. When we got into my room, here came Diane with a bunch of beautiful dresses for the niece. I could go on for hrs about Diane. I love you always and forever. Fly high my angel and sista forever. Aunt Judy and Uncle Kent, Lindy, Brett and Emily I'm so sorry for your loss as I know that your missing her already. I Love all of you. Big huggs to my family. ❤️

“ My sincere condolence to the family. Diane was a part of our family for many years. She was always good to my brother, Hugh, and Mother and Daddy. Brett and Emily rest assured she is at peace now with out pain or suffering! I love you and if I can help in any way , please let me know. Y'all are in my thoughts and prayers!
