

Mrs. Elizabeth Bailey

November 2, 1920 - August 9, 2014

Mrs. Frances "Elizabeth" Bailey, age 93, peacefully passed away on Saturday, August 9, 2014. Born November 2, 1920 in Lincoln, Alabama, Elizabeth was one of ten children born to Reid and Maggie Browning. A lifelong homemaker, she worked tire-lessly to make their home a place of loving comfort to her husband and their six children. Never one to be sitting, she was never too busy to help anyone in need. A caregiver by nature, she considered it her life's mission.

Strength and honor are her clothing....she looketh well to the household and eateth not of the bread of idleness....her children arise up and call her blessed.

Proverbs 31: 25, 27, 28

A devoted member of Union Baptist Church in Lipscomb since 1947, she loved her Lord and cherished her church family.

Elizabeth was preceded in death by her husband, James H. (Jim) Bailey in 1980, their eldest daughter, Jimmie Lou in 1964, her parents, all her siblings and a son-in-law, Billy Milstead in 1998.

Left to cherish her memory are her daughters, Faye McBrayer, Myra Barkalow, Linda Barger (Johnny) and Cathy Milstead; her son, James Bailey Jr.; six grandchildren, ten great-grandchildren, nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be on Thursday, August 14, 2014 at 11:00 AM at McCalla Memorial Funeral Home with burial to follow in Valhalla Cemetery. The family will receive friends one hour prior to services. Rev. Bill McCall will be officiating. Grandsons and great-grandsons are honored to serve their Mamaw as pallbearers.

The family would like to thank Dr. John Dumas for his personal care of our mother for over 30 years. Special thank you to the entire staff at Plantation Manor Nursing Home, especially everyone on the lower level, for their exceptional care they provided over the last eight years. Also, thank you to Southeast Hospice for their comfort they provided during this time.
