“ Ann always had a smile, even through the physical pain she endured over the years. In the years I served as her pastor, I never heard her complain. She took care of the church and was a great cook, always bringing something great to eat to the church office during the week. She will be truly missed . . . We continue to pray for Ron and the family. God bless and may you know His loving arms surrounding you all. Gary & Carol Cardwell
