“ I was greatly saddened to learn of my cousin Fred's passing. We connected a short while ago while sharing the love of genealogy and I, along with daughter, Diane, traveled from Daytona Beach, Florida to visit him and his wonderful family. He really knew how to put a reunion together and he loved every minute of family and he was just such a warm and sweet man. He will be much missed. My love and prayers go to Lottie and Peggy and the family. You have lost a really wonderful man, but we will all be together one day.

“ Fred, I was so very sorry to hear you passed. You and Lottie were such wonderful sweet fun loving people. I enjoyed the family reunions and you and Lottie's spunky personality. I still remember the nickname you gave me when we first met at the family reunion "Yankee Talking Southerner".
