“ The members of the 33rd Alabama Infantry wish to express their condolences and sympathy to Mike's family in this time of sorrow. Mike will be sorely missed at future reenactment events and especially around the campfire in the evening. His quick wit and tales were never ending, and never ever boring. His presence was always welcome and his participation rewarding. May he ever rest in peace. and God bless his family.

“ I was lucky enough to work with Mike at Tannehill when he dressed in his Civil War uniform and brought period tools and weapons to demonstrate for children at the Tannehill Learning Center. He also participated in the Civil War Reenactment and the Candlelight Walking tours. He knew so much about history and he really enjoyed sharing his knowledge with children. Mike was a wonderful friend and we will all miss him terribly. I pray for God to hold his family's hand during the coming days.
