

George "Chad" Chadwick Mumpower

October 1, 1973 - November 29, 2023

George Chadwick "Chad" Mumpower, 50, of Helena, Alabama, passed away on November 29, 2023. He was born on October 1, 1973, in Birmingham, Alabama.

Chad was the ultimate BAMA fan who never met a stranger and had a deep love and pride for his friends and family - most of all his daughter Cecilia, and his love and best friend of 25 years, his wife Tina. Along with being a devoted husband, father, son, brother, uncle, and friend, Chad was a generous and friendly neighbor, a believer in God, a prayer leader in his family, a music lover, and a big kid who was full of energy and always up for an adventure. That same passion for life poured out into his hospitality to others, always opening his home and sharing his excitement with everyone around.

Chad graduated from UAB with a degree in Criminal Justice. He started at the Homewood Police Department in 1998, serving as a dedicated Corrections Officer for 25 years.

Chad is survived by his wife Tina, their daughter Cecilia, and his parents Bob and Deana Mumpower. He is also survived by his siblings Chester Mumpower (Kassa) and Suzanne Mumpower, his in-laws Raymond Brown (Patricia), Shawna Brown, Chad Brown (Pamela), and Maria Oldham (David), and his nephews and nieces: Jake Mumpower (Kelsey), Josh Mumpower, Kenzie and Keaton Boyett, Jonah and Ada Brown, and Mila Oldham.

Chad was preceded in death by his grandparents Bush and Elizabeth Mumpower and Rich and Evelyn Bramlett.

A visitation to honor Chad's life will be held on December 5 at Hoover Church of Christ from 11:00 am to 1:00 pm. The funeral service will be at 1:00 pm followed by a police escorted processional to the graveside at Currie-Jefferson Memorial Gardens.

Chad Mumpower is deeply missed by his family, friends, and all those whose lives he touched with his life. ROLL TIDE!

“ I met Tina first at SouthTrust as we were Consumer Loan Specialists. We connected almost immediately because we had both married and relocated to Birmingham from Huntsville over 20 years ago. We exchanged stories of how we meet our spouses. Then one day as our all lady department was busy compiling loan packets, a very handsome police officer came into the office! We began to whisper, of course about how handsome he was, but also about who he was in the office to see. Then Tina greeted him. I think I was the first to admit to Tina that we thought her husband was cute.

As time went by Chad proved over and over again that he was not just a handsome face to look at. He and Tina time and time again opened their hearts and home to me and Christian. I will forever cherish how he and Tina would take care of Christian when I was in the hospital or needed someone I trusted completely to take care of him. Chad would even take care of our German Shepard when I was in the hospital.

What I pray for right now is that my son will one day be completely devoted to his family as Chad was. His love and dedication to Tina and Cecilia was unmatched!

My heart is heavy for Tina and Cecilia but I'm praising God at the same time for I know Chad has a place in heaven!

My prayers are with you, Tina and Cecilia. I know your faith will sustain you. Please know that God's ministering angels are all around you as you take this journey.

Love always, Mary and Christian
