

Hellon Denise Clark

April 25, 1956 - September 12, 2019

Hellon Denise Clark

Went home to be with our Lord and Savior on September 12, 2019, after an extended illness. She was born in Birmingham, AL on April 25, 1956.

She was a devoted wife, loving mother and grandmother. Denise attended Glenn Vocational School and attained a Master Cosmetology License. In early adult life, she was devoted to ministry and became an ordained minister through the Full Gospel Fellowship. Among many cherished moments of her ministry was officiating the ordination ceremony of her father. She is preceded in death by her husband Edward Ray Haynes, Sr., a daughter, Amanda Haynes, her parents, Howard R Clark, Sr. and Mary Hellon Clark, a brother, Rennie Clark. She is survived by her children Edward Ray Haynes, Jr.

(Veronica) of Kennedy AL and Geanie Livingston (James) of Cottondale AL, a granddaughter, Leslie Livingston of Tuscaloosa AL and two grandsons, JJ Livingston (Christen) of Birmingham and Braylon Haynes of Kennedy AL, a great granddaughter, Raelynn Joy, a sister, Geanie Durham (Bobby), two nieces, Erin Sumner and Carli Durham, a nephew, Cory Clark and a great-niece Lily Durham. Also, many life-long friends whom she loved dearly.

The family wishes to extend their gratitude to the 1st Floor MICU Unit nurses and physicians at DCH Regional Medical for their compassionate and exceptional care and also to West Alabama Hospice.

A graveside service will be held Monday September 16th at 10:00 AM: Elmwood Cemetery MLK Jr. Drive Birmingham, AL 35211, Directed by McCalla Memorial Funeral Home.

Cemetery Details

Elmwood Cemetery

600 Martin Luther King Jr. Drive
Birmingham, AL 35211