“ I met Jack and his mother at the gas station in Bessemer when I was a kid. It was down the road from my grandparents' house. We would stop by every day to see him and say hello. He always greeted me with a big hug, and a piece of candy. Such a sweet memory from 30+ years ago. I'm so sad I waited so long to look him up. Rest in love.

“ My husband and I first met Jack over 23 years ago. We were building our house just about 1 mile from his store. That store became a regular stop. I will always remember Jack as a true southern gentleman. Always with a smile, pleasant greeting and asking how my day was going. As Mona mentioned above, Jack always came out to fill up my gas tank and I would find myself staying quite awhile listening to his stories. And trust me, he knew some good stories! I will remember Jack as someone who was sincerely and completely invested in our community; spending time and money to make improvements. My prayers go out to Gail and family. I'm pretty sure Jack will continue to watch over our little community. ❤️ 🙏
