

Jackie Clyde Gamble

November 15, 1939 - February 4, 2024

Jackie Clyde Gamble, 84, of Bessemer Alabama passed away 2/4/24 from injuries he received in an auto accident. Jackie was a beloved Father, Grandfather, Brother, Uncle, Cousin and friend to many. He is survived by his daughter Mitzi Gamble Weaver, son in law Annon B. Weaver and grandson Ryan Chase Weaver of McCalla and his daughter Rebecca Lynn Gamble, son in law Johnny Capps and Granddaughter Jaycee McKenzie Capps of West Blocton. He was preceded in death by his parents, Lois and George Clyde Gamble, sister Clara, brother Ray and his granddaughter Kelsey Lauren Weaver. Connie Tramell was his dear friend and confidant for many years, he cared for her deeply.

Jackie was a gifted musician; he was known by many as one of the finest guitarists in the state of Alabama. His friends called him "The Guitar Man". He was a very giving person to so many others, helping them to develop their own musical talents. He loved to fish and loved life. The love he had for his daughters and grandchildren was undeniable.

Jackie's funeral service will be at McCalla Memorial Funeral Home on Thursday February 8, 2024 at 1:00 with visitation at noon and burial following at Highland Memorial Gardens. Jackie will be missed by all who loved him.

“ Jackie was an excellent guitar player. I liked watching him, his fingers were, so light on the strings. Sorry he is gone.
