“ Pat, So sorry this is late but ignorant me who always ends up back at home thought you might bring him back to Bryson City - forgetting that your home is there now. I know that there are no words that can stop the hurting at this time, but just wanted you to know I love you and am praying for you - Diane

“ Larry, I am so glad I got there to see you before you left us. You stayed positive through everything you endured. Talking to you always encouraged me. We know where you are and we know you will be looking out for us!
