“ Lyn and I grew up together and were great friends all the way to college. I have so many memories with her. There was one time when her family and ours drove to the Guntersville area in my parent's station wagon. She and I sat in the back (of course) and we sang "I have decided to follow Jesus" almost the whole drive there. That's a little crazy when you think about it, but we thought it was a load of fun. Lyn, I'm sorry to see the world lose you but you are with our Lord in Heaven and that's an amazing comfort. To Judy, Kelly and all her family, I'm so sorry for your loss. I am praying for you all.
