“ Our family moved into the TVE subdivision in 1992 and we met Jeannie and her family. As our friendship grew we came to love her as we would an Aunt to our children, so to speak. Our boys learned to swim in her pool. She enjoyed watching them run and jump and dive into her pool. They loved her. She was the sweetest person ever and had such a loving heart and a soft voice to match. If I did anything to help out at her house or in her yard I always received a call afterwards so she could say “Thank you and I love you!”. I can hear it now! Love you Jeannie. ❤️

“ In 1972 I gave birth to a baby girl at Bessemer Carraway Hospital. I labored in a small hospital room for nine hours alone, except for a 10 min visit from my husband every two hours-except for my nurse with the angelic face and gentle touch. Most of my pain was in my back and Jeannie massaged my back with her soft hands every 30 minutes. Her shift ended at 3pm but she stayed with me until I delivered at 4:30pm.

Through the years I had the pleasure of seeing Jeannie at the hospital while visiting family and friends. We would have our usual conversation concerning back rubs and how blessed I was to have had her as my Angel Nurse.

If I live to be 100yo, I will never forget that special nurse with the soft hands and the angelic face. 🙏

RIP MY ANGEL FRIEND
