

Jeanette Elizabeth Logan

September 27, 1936 - January 28, 2023

Jeanette E. Logan worked at O'Hare Airport in Des Plaines, IL, where she met her husband of 51 years. She was dedicated to her family, especially her grandchildren who she doted on. She loved driving her red Ford truck and Corvette. She loved animals, especially her kitties. She was a huge fan of Jon Bon Jovi and named her favorite cat in his honor. She was a huge fan of vintage television shows such as; The Andy Griffith Show, The Doris Day Show, Hunter, and Murder She Wrote. She is survived by her son, Michael Logan (Melinda); her daughter, Mary Logan (Mark); and her two grandchildren Patrick and Margo. Funeral services will be held in Twin Lakes Wisconsin at a later date.
