

Jerry Holley

October 18, 1944 - June 15, 2026

Jerry Dean Holley, of Alabama, passed away peacefully surrounded by the love of his family. He was born on October 18, 1944, in Amherst, Texas, to Erven Howell Holley and Dollie Edith Butler Holley.

Jerry was married to the love of his life, Charlotte Holley, for more than six decades. The couple married on April 30, 1962, and built a life centered on family, hard work, and devotion to one another. Jerry worked as a tool pusher in the Capstone Oilfield before retiring, a career that reflected his strong work ethic and dedication.

Jerry was preceded in death by his parents; his siblings, Arvel Holley, Ralph Holley, Grady Holley, Marie Holley Carlise, Mildred Holley Roundtree, Wanda Holley Copeland, Erven Holley and Linda Holley Thurman.

He is survived by his beloved wife, Charlotte Holley; his children, Jimmy Dean Holley, Kevin Dee Holley, and Tammie Holley Shipp; his grandchildren, Jimmy James Holley, Jennifer Holley Vineyard, Amanda Holley Ramos, and Holley; and numerous great-grandchildren, including Bayleigh Holley, Jaycie Holley, Miguel Ramos, Julian Ramos, Preston Ortegon, Kaiden Ortegon, Isaiah Ortegon, Rainey Ortegon, Sam Vineyard, Bailey Vineyard, Everley Alvarez, and Allora Ortegon.

Pallbearers are to be determined. Honorary Pallbearers will be the wonderful staff of Capstone Oilfield.

Visitation will be Friday, June 18th at 1 pm at McCalla Memorial Funeral Home. A service will follow at 2 PM and then Jerry will be laid to rest at Hickman Church Cemetery.

The family extends their sincere appreciation to Capstone Oilfield and all those who have offered support, prayers, and kindness during this difficult time.

"Those we love don't go away; they walk beside us every day."
