

JoAnn Borgan Radue

January 7, 1932 - December 10, 2019

Radue, Jo Ann (Borgan) went to be with Jesus on December 10, 2019 from pneumonia after a long battle with dementia.

Born January 7, 1932 to Joseph and Christine Borgan, she was an only child who loved music, family and Christmas.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Dr. H. L. Radue, and both her parents. She is survived by her two sons, Kevin Radue of Dawsonville, GA and Chris Radue of Birmingham, AL, her daughter, Michele Willis (Ernie), her grandchildren, Jackson, Carson and Madison Willis of Eclectic, AL and many cousins who were like siblings to her. She was a loving wife, mother, mother-in-law, Mimi and friend who enjoyed serving others. She will be missed by all who knew her.

Services will be held Saturday, December 14, with visitation at 10am and service in the chapel at 11am at McCalla Memorial Funeral Home followed by a graveside at Southern Heritage. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Grace Point Community Church in Wetumpka, AL where Jo Ann's son-in-law is the pastor.
