“ I will always remember my Uncle Joe for his laugh. Whenever I was with him, he was telling jokes and laughing, as he was just a happy person loving life! He was fun to be around as I was growing up. He always made time for me when I came to visit. I took my first ride on a motorcycle with Uncle Joe, which I'll never forget! I'll treasure all the times we bantered back and forth with each other about Auburn and Alabama. Dear to my heart are my memories of Christmas get togethers and Easter egg hunts at my grandmother's with Uncle Joe, Aunt Darlene and my cousins. All of these things I treasure about Uncle Joe. He will always have a special place in my heart. I look forward to seeing him in heaven.
Love always, Terri Adair Gainey

“ Joe Pat was one in a million. He was the best friend ever - always supportive, ready to help, full of ideas - just the best. He was so kind to our children and so proud of them - just like they were his own. They all called him Uncle Joe. We had many amazing times on the waters and in the woods with him through the years. We loved him and will miss him so much. John and Denise Phillips and family
