My heart is broken today learning of Justin's passing. Though I did not know him personally I have been a customer at Riverchase Automotive for years. Looking through the pictures I can see how much love he had for his sweet little girls and his lovely wife and all of his family. I am so glad that his daughters will one day have peace knowing how much this guy loved them and was such a good "girl dad" as reflected in his pictures. I am praying for his young wife and siblings and parents as well. God bless you all.
