“ I’m so sorry Karen I didn’t even know you were sick if I had known I would have come seen you. I didn’t even get to say goodbye. So heartbroken! We used to be so close when we were young. Rest In Peace my friend!

“ Karen was the strongest person I have ever known in her battle with cancer. She fought this terrible disease like a valiant warrior and no matter how sick she was, she never complained. She fought so hard because she loved her girls so much. She always put them first, and never missed any important events in their lives, even when she was so sick. Rest in peace now Karen with our Lord, and we WILL see you again

“ Karen had such warm heart and welcoming spirit. Although I’m not a life long friend, I always felt like one in her presence. She was so comfortable to be around. She was a beautiful woman and will be missed by many. I know my Cooper will miss being watched by her. Love, prayers and my deepest condolences to her family. ❤️
