“ Kay Webb one of the sweetest women I ever knew. I considered her a true friend. She always shared the love of Jesus in her everyday life. Heaven's much sweeter today with her there. Prayers are going up for Larry and the family. We love you all.

“ Nanny was the sweetest woman I have every known. Never a harms word uttered from her mouth, only about Jesus have I ever heard her speak. May she be holding hands with our King today Praising His Name as she did here on earth. I love you Nanny.

“ T his wonderful lady was just like a mom to me. She took me in under her wing when I didn't have a mom. She loved me and my family just as though we were her family. She was always there for me and I could call her to pray for me and know it would be done. RIP mom until we meet again in heaven, I love you and I'll miss you everyday until then.
