“ We used to laugh and talk. You were always clever, smart, and kind. You were a good friend. Miss you friend.

“ "Hippie". That's what I used to call you. I met you years ago on a video game. You were one of the most unique people i've ever known. We shared a lot of great memories, and for whatever reason, you always followed me around in the game, no matter where I went. => I discovered you passed away by simply reading other peoples posts tonight, and i'm in shock. Rest assured, I never took you for granted. Even my family knew who I was talking about when i'd mention your name. I hope you're in a better place now. I will truly miss you. For the Alliance, old friend.
