“ Kelly,

I think of you often. I wish I had a chance to say goodbye. I suppose only the good die young is a true statement. There was a time in my life where I felt as if I didn't have a friend, and you were there for me. You didn't question my mood, my needs, you listened and you cared. You took me in for the day, and treated me like family. I told you I had never seen the movie Alice in Wonderland before and you were shocked. You put it on immediately. I really enjoyed it. I will never forget that as long as I live, it meant everything to me. You showed so much support for your friends and family. You were a true a giver and the most thoughtful human. The Coach loves you. I love you. We will never ever forget you.

Love always,

Toni
