

Kevin J. Carver

December 16, 1967 - September 19, 2021

Kevin J. Carver, age 53, passed away in the early morning of September 19th, 2021 at UAB West hospital in Bessemer, AL due to COVID-19 and pneumonia complications.

Kevin was born on December 16th, 1967 and grew up in the rustic countryside of Bibb county, AL. He graduated from West Blocton High School in 1987 where he was known to be fun, loving, and free-spirited. In 1994, he welcomed his beautiful daughter, Ashlyn, who became the center of his world. Kevin met Carole in 1998 and became the love of his life for 23 wonderful years. During which time he cared and loved her children, Brittney and Brian, as if they were his own.

Kevin lived a great life as a devoted son, husband, and father. When it came to those in need he wouldn't think twice on giving the shirt off of his back. He was truly a man possessing a spirit of charity and patriotism. He was a Christian man with a big heart that echoed through everyone in his life. To see him was to see a happy man in shorts and rocking an Alabama shirt.

Survived by his wife Carole Carver, 23 years. Daughter Ashlyn Carver, stepdaughter Brittney (Ryan) Smith, stepson Brian Shirley. Two grandsons, Braylen Biggers and Glendon McMillian. Two granddaughters, Marissa and Dakota Shirley. Mother Kathleen McGee. Brothers and sister, Ronnie Carver, Ricky (Wanda) Carver, Jackie Carver, Ross (Ruthie) Carver, Jeffrey (Alice) Carver, and Betty Krueger. As well as many nieces, nephews, other relatives, and friends.

Preceded in death by his father Jessie Carver and Gloria Thrasher.
