“ my beautiful sister, my life is just an empty blur, I can't wrap my head around everything that's happened, you left this world too soon, I will forever remember your laughter, you always being the loudest, always drinking dr pepper with a straw, making the best lasagna, macaroni and cheese, loaded potatoes, coming over knowing I'm asleep banging on the door, and being my big sister, you always looked out for me, you were always there for me, losing you I lose a piece of myself, I will continue to keep you in my heart and talk about you, we had so many memories and so much more to make, I know your in heaven looking down at us with our grandparents but it's just so hard not having you here to talk to , to hear you laugh or see you smile. I love you so very much and I will see you again, times are so hard right now but it comforts me knowing I have one of the best guardian angels looking over me. I hope your having the Time of your life in heaven and seeing granny and pa-paw again.
