“ I have always adored Kyle. As a toddler with the blond hair, he would walk in a room with that precious little face and had a smile, that took your breath away. Even as a little guy he was one of the most polite little kids I had ever seen. As a teenager working at Starbucks in Target, I knew he was a pretty special young man. The past few years we have lost so many of our families. Kyle was there as a grown up young man. Always kind, respectful, and shining with love for all of us.

To believe Kyle is gone and not going to be here on this earth with us is so unimaginable. I was blessed with his presents many times thru his short 23 years and I thank God for that. My heart is broken for Theresa, Gene, Amy, Michael, Dylan and the rest of his family. Kyle is safe in the arms of Jesus, and to quote Dylan, Kyle is no longer walking with a limp. We will see him again and I am so Grateful God Share him with us for his short life here.

So til we see you again Kyle, give everyone there a hug for me especially, Aunt Betty, Mama and Aunt MaryLee I know that they all are watching over you now. You are so loved and will be so missed.

“ Kyle was such a humble young man. Always smiling and happy. My husband and I always enjoyed our time with him when we visited his mother and their family. We will always be missing a part of our heart now 💔
