“ I always looked forward to seeing Larry whenever we'd go to Alabama or Mississippi. Because he was close to Daddy's age, I thought he was my uncle and not my cousin when I was little, so I called him Uncle Larry, and he thought that was funny. He was always a kind and funny man. He was especially good to us when Daddy died last year. It's heartbreaking to know he's gone, but he was one of those who made the rest of us better for knowing him.

“ My daddy was the greatest example of unconditional love. He loves his family and friends. I've never heard a bad word spoken about my father. One of the things I will miss most is driving with dad and listening to music and listening to him play his guitar. Half of my heart will never be the same. I'm so thankful for all the friends he was blessed with .

*Larry was and is the best friend I ever had.
His love for me was endless.
No matter the trouble Terry got himself into, he was there to take care of me.
Larry was always in my life, from my earliest memories.
He did exactly what Mama told him to do for 74 1/2 years.
"Larry, you take care of Terry and hold his hand".
It broke my heart to let him go.
I love you Brother, I'll see you soon.*
