“ After mom and Gary got married you let me call you Nana Lona. You made apple fry pies...which became my most favorite thing to eat. You made me some beautiful pillows that I love! You shared writing letters with me over the years. Thank You for being in my life! You will be missed by all who knew you!###imported-begin##Jaimie Enniss##imported-end##

“ I am getting ready to move, again... I packed a quilt that you had for me shortly after Gary and my mom married. I have always treasured it. 20 years later you made pillows for each of my boys and they treasure those. Ben likes to put his pillow on his bed in the morning and then on his dresser at night because he doesn't want to ruin it. Jax has to have it in his bed every night next to his head for Cotton Tail (his favorite stuffed rabbit) to sleep on it. My quilt and the boy's pillows remind me that even though we've never lived nearby, you have always made me and my boys feel close at heart. Thank you Grandma Lona, for always making me feel special in your life and thank you for being somebody special in mine.
