

Martha Clarice Powell

February 12, 1927 - December 18, 2016

Martha Clarice Powell passed into Heaven on December 18, 2016 at the age of 89. She was a committed; a faithful wife to husband Charles for 69 years; a seamstress; a great cook; a gardener; a lifelong Southern Baptist and member of Fairfield Highlands Baptist Church; one who loved to read the bible and someone who constantly made meals to take to friends and neighbors. She was also a mother of two children, daughter, Nancy (Tim) Layfield and son, Larry (Jan) Powell; a grandmother to, Tiffany, Kevin, Amanda and Nathan, and a great grandmother to Ethan, Eva, Isaac, Ansley, Avery, Caiden, Abbie and Sam. She was one of 10 children raised in central GA with only two sisters remaining at her death. Her family moved to Fairfield, AL in 1952. Her name fit her well, because she was always busy doing something for others and never wanted anything for herself. While her husband would sometimes admit to feeling bad, she would always say "I'm fine". She was the eternal optimist and always found the good in others. She is now happy that she is able to join her husband in heaven who preceded her two years ago in death and was waiting for.
