

Martha Ann Romine

June 4, 1940 - February 3, 2026

Martha Ann McLeroy Romine stepped into the arms of Jesus on February 3, 2026. Until the very end, Martha fiercely loved her family and was a beautiful example of a servant's heart.

Martha was born on June 4, 1940, in Sumiton, Alabama, where she grew up and graduated from Dora High School in 1959. She married James Robert Romine at a young age, and they were lovingly married for fifty-five years before his death in 2014. She is survived in death by her two children, Phil (Sharee') Romine and Melissa (Jim) Knight. Perhaps her favorite role in life was Mawmaw to five grandchildren - Brittney (Hunter) Birdyshaw, Kayla (Blake) Stephens, Jakob (Ali) Knight, Garrett Romine, Brady (Kelsey) Romine and seven great-grandchildren - Easton, Tatum, and Maren Birdyshaw, Olivia and Briggs Stephens, and Foster and Channing Knight and her favorite nephew Mark (Beth) McLeroy.

To know Martha was to know a woman of extraordinary faith. She loved Jesus, her family, gardening, Alabama football, and the Atlanta Braves. Her sweet spirit touched the lives of all who knew her. We will forever be grateful for her life and honor the legacy she leaves.

“ There are so many sweet memories I hold of Ms. Martha. My parents were close friends with the Romine family for as long as I can remember, and their home was always a place filled with warmth and kindness. I still think fondly of our trips to Franklin, Tennessee, where visiting them felt like stepping into a second home.

Ms. Martha was a truly beautiful soul—gracious, gentle, and full of quiet strength. She will be deeply missed by all who knew her. But I take comfort in knowing that her faith is now made sight, and she is resting in the fullness of the peace she believed in so dearly.

“ I became friends with Martha and Jim at church in Franklin, Tennessee. My husband and I became very close and we took a couple of trips together to Hawaii and also to New York to give out Bibles. What a wonderful couple they were! A funny memory of Martha came back to me. One of our trips to Hawaii was during Thanksgiving week. It rained so much the streets were flooded. Our condo was next to a small shopping center so Martha and I went barefooted and had a grand old time!

“ *Martha and Jim are together with the Lord and can rest in Him together. You will all be in our prayers and thoughts. Peace and blessings 🙏
I imagine she's listening to Jack and Jim singing with the heavenly Plainsmen Quartet....*
